

Snapshot of Victorian residents (volunteers and non-volunteers)

In general volunteers contribute 223.9 hours per year which is approximately 4.3 per week

2.3
MILLION OR

Where do Victorians volunteer?

4 OUT OF 5
people's volunteering took place from their home or local community

13.8%

of employed Victorians (8.1% of the population) participated in a workplace-organised or a workplace-sponsored volunteering program

Donations to volunteer-involving organisations

Volunteers donate $69.24
on average per month

Non-volunteers $35.97
on average per month

28.9%

of Victorians volunteered in not-for-profit organisations on average

153.7 | 12.8
hours a year | hours a month

25.3%

of Victorians volunteered informally in the community on average

108.2 | 9.0
hours a year | hours a month

10.0%

of Victorians volunteered to support government services on average

146.5 | 12.2
hours a year | hours a month

8.6%

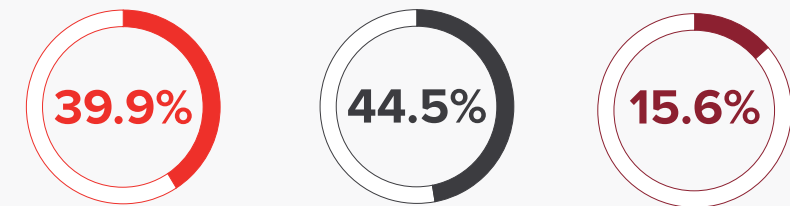

of Victorians volunteered in private (for-profit) organisations on average

101.4 | 8.4
hours a year | hours a month

Victorians told us that

Do Victorians volunteer formally or informally?

39.9%
of volunteers volunteer formally in organisations (not for profit, government and private organisations)

44.5%
of volunteers volunteered both formally and informally

15.6%
of volunteers volunteer informally in the community

Victorians donated at least

507.7
MILLION
VOLUNTEER HOURS
to the community in 2019

Top three barriers to volunteering for non-volunteers:

1. Limited time
2. Work commitments
3. Never been asked

Top three barriers to volunteering for volunteers:

1. Limited time
2. Work commitments
3. Family commitments

Top three motivations for Victorians to volunteer

1. To give to community
2. To support a cause
3. For social connections